COBLENTZ, JANUARY 14.

THE Cold has been ſo exceſſive as to freeze the Rhine, which, on Account of the Rapidity of the Current, is a Circumſtance that ſeldom happens. Not only thouſands of People walk upon it, but Carriages, Coaches, and Sledges croſs it without Danger; and a Sort of Fair is held upon it. Several Workmen of different Buſineſſes have exerciſed their Trade upon it, and preſented the work to the Elector our Sovereign. We read in the Annals of this City, that the water of this River was frozen in the Year 1670, from the 11th of January to the 27th; and that the Artificers acted in the ſame Manner.

On the Reſolution taken by the States in Britanny, that they would not enter upon any of the Affairs of the Province, till they had obtained the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Parliament, as it ſtood in January 1764, the King wrote to the Duke d'Aiguillon, on the 6th, the following Letter:

"Couſin,

"Can your Britons imagine, that I will change the invariable Reſolution I have taken of maintaining the new Form of my Parliament of Britanny, and of not ſuffering it to exceed ſixty Perſons? Can they believe that I will diſmiſs the good Servants I have, to put in their place thoſe who have been wanting in the Obedience due to me from my Subjects? Repeat to them, for the laſt Time, that I forbid them moſt expreſſly to trouble themſelves any longer about what regards my Parliament, and tell them, that if they ſtill perſiſt to make new Repreſentations, I ſhall not be able to look upon their Conduct in any other Light, than as a formal Diſobedience to my Will. After making them this Declaration, you are to execute punctually and literally what I have preſcribed in your Inſtructions; this is the only Way of meriting the Continuation of my Goodneſs and Protection."

LONDON, FEBRUARY 4.

The Materials of which it is compoſed are Gold, Silver, Steel, Braſs, Copper, Ebony, Ivory, Hair, &c. the Hull, Maſts, Yards, Booms, &c. being Ivory; the Guns, Anchors, Blocks, Dead Eyes, &c. Great Things are expected from theſe Catalogues, no Account of the Manuſcripts in the above-mentioned Library having ever been taken before. Among others we may hope to ſee a compleat Edition of Livy's Works, the Decades, which are now wanting, being, according to a modern Traveller, in Manuſcript in the Library of the Eſcurial.

Tueſday an Expreſs arrived from Sir George Maccartney, at the Court of Peterſburgh, ſaid to be relative to the affairs of the Proteſtants in Poland.

According to letters from Poland, the affair of the Proteſtants of that kingdom is likely to become very ſerious; the Prince de Repnin, the Ruſſian Ambaſſador, having declared, that the Empreſs his Sovereign would not eaſily brook the little regard which had been ſhewn to her interceſſion in their behalf.

Very large commiſſions have, within theſe few days, been received, to ſhip Carolina rice for the markets of Spain and the Mediterranean.

We hear a large magazine for naval ſtores will be built this ſummer at Torbay, for the uſe of his Majeſty's ſhips of war.

FEBRUARY 14. Some of the laſt letters from Hamburgh, by the way of Holland, adviſe, that the Spaniards are diligently enliſting ſailors in that city, but for the moſt part privately.

It is reported, that an actual ſurvey of all his Majeſty's forts and caſtles in Great-Britain and Ireland will be made, by ſome of the beſt engineers of this kingdom, in the courſe of next ſummer.

Laſt night an expreſs arrived from Lord Viſcount Stormont, Ambaſſador at the Court of Vienna.

FEBRUARY 17. The following odd affair happened laſt week at the weſt end of the town: A perſon of fortune having taken a medicine prepared by his apothecary, was ſoon ſeized with a violent ſickneſs, and being convinced there had been ſome miſtake in the compoſition, ordered the apothecary to attend him, who no ſooner came, than the patient locked the chamber door, drew his ſword, and pouring out the remaining draught, obliged the apothecary to drink it off; and it is ſaid, they both ſtill continue very ill.

A plan is agreed on for making a ſpacious entrance from New Palace-yard, in a direct line up to the door of the Houſe of Commons, with piazzas on each ſide, for the more commodious paſſage of the members to and from the houſe, which is to be begun early in the ſpring.

We hear from Guernſey, that a diving machine capable to contain ſix perſons is now making there, to be uſed this ſummer in an attempt to fiſh up part of the wreck of the late Victory man of war, which lies ſunk in twenty fathom water on the coaſt of Alderney, where they had placed a red buoy.

Extract of a Letter from Algier, December 13.

"On the 15th of November laſt, a Venetian ſhip of war anchored oppoſite to this city, having on board the Venetian Ambaſſador, who, together with the Captain, came on ſhore the next day, to compliment the Bey on his arrival to the regency; and who delivered to him the next day, on the part of their Republick, Ten Thouſand Zequins of Venice, about four Thouſand Five Hundred Pounds, Six Shillings Sterling; but, as they had no other preſent for the Bey, and were not even charged with a letter of ſollicitation from the Senate, they were ordered on the 18th to embark, and declaration made to them, that from that moment the Regency was in war with their nation. They continued, however, in the road till the 19th, when they were told that they ſhould be immediately ſunk, unleſs they departed, and that the cannon were loaded for that purpoſe: On this they inſtantly ſet ſail.

"Five days after the St. George, a Dutch frigate, arrived here from Conſtantinople, with new preſents from the Grand Seignor to the Bey, that is to ſay, four pieces of cannon, thirty-five pounders, 482 bombs, 38 maſts, 70 boards, proper for making carriages, 250 oars ready made, and 248 unmade.

"There are at preſent two frigates from this port, of 30 guns each, one of 24, and ſix Chebecks out upon a cruiſe againſt the chriſtians. The commanders of theſe veſſels have juſt ſent in here 21 ſlaves, viz. 13 Spaniards and 8 Portugueſe, whom they took lately."

They write from Algier, in Letters of the 24th of December, that on the firſt of the preceeding month, a Swediſh frigate arrived in that port, laden with four pieces of iron cannon of 24 pounds ball each, and ſupplied with carriages, 5000 ball of the ſame weight, 500 quintals of powder, 3000 deals, 100 tons of peaſe, 200 tons of tar, and as many pieces of canvaſs, as preſents to the Bey.

The next day alſo a Daniſh ſhip arrived there, with four cannon of 24 pounds ball each, four mortars, one hundred quintals of powder, and two hundred oak planks for the conſtruction of carriages, as preſents to the Bey, from the Grand Seignor.

Our marine forces, it is ſaid, will be augmented this ſeſſion of parliament, with the addition of ten thouſand ſeamen.

Laſt Saturday being the 24th of February, and the 45th day of the year, a ſociety of Gentlemen, Forty-five in number, met at the Mitre-Tavern in Fleet-ſtreet, to celebrate the day on which Mr. John Williams, was appointed to be in New-Palace-Yard, Weſtminſter; for ſelling the North-Briton, No. 45, in Volumes. On this occaſion the following new Toaſts were drank, viz.

1. Confuſion to the Advocates for the Stewart Race, and Deteſtation to ſham Patriots and Apoſtates.

2. To that truly noble Peer, the Lord High Chancellor.

3. To ſuch Patriots (if any are to be found) as would ſcorn to liſt under the Banner of Capt. Mac Scuib, and his Creatures.

4. To the grateful Remembrance of the important Scottiſh Services of a late great Commoner, who, through his unhappy Ambition and Credulity, fell a Sacrifice to the Artifice of a Northern Juggler and his Accomplices.

5. To the brave Americans, and all their Friends; and a ſpeedy Revival of the ancient Engliſh Spirit.

6. May Triennial Parliaments be reſtored, and Corruption be rooted up; may Trade flouriſh, and our ſtarving Manufacturers be enabled to eat.

7. May our enormous army be reduced, and the penal Laws be repealed; may we be freed from heavy Taxes and Poverty, from Exciſe Laws, and all Encroachments on our Conſtitution.

8. To the eternal Infamy of double-faced Jefferies; and all Juridical Trimmers, and Jeſuitical Jugglers.

9. May the fatal Effects of Favouritiſm be a warning to Poſterity, and Deteſtation to thoſe who aid or countenance a northern over-ruling Influence.

10. May the Spaniard's Conduct in routing Squillace, make a ſuitable Impreſſion on Engliſh Breaſts.

11. To Alderman Janſen, who was inſtrumental in ſupporting the Credit of the Nation, when it was at the laſt Gaſp, in the dreadful Rebellion of 1745.

12. May every Miniſter be inſpired with Magnanimity and Integrity; may they exiſt to be Miniſters rather than be controlled by the Creatures of a Man that wants Wiſdom, and holds Principles incompatible with Freedom.

13. To our Friend Mr. John Williams, may Succeſs attend all his Undertakings.

We are informed that the new Nabob, lately arrived in the city of Norwich, is introduced into all companies: He is highly careſſed by men of parts, and every lady of taſte, ſpirit and faſhion. For him the wanton Chloe rivets in the market; for him the fair Amanda ſighs in ſecret at her heart, and ſighs, alas, too often in vain! Him, all the ſons of pleaſure court, as a boon companion for the Ladies, and a ſtanding diſh at Delia's table!——N. B. The Britiſh Nabob is Miſs Polly's favourite toaſt.

We are informed, that near 100 Britiſh ſhip-carpenters have been inveigled into foreign ſervice, within theſe three months paſt.

Friday ſeveral agents for the American colonies had a conference with the Right Hon. Mr. Secretary Conway, on affairs of importance.

FEBRUARY 22. It is now ſaid that General Murchies goes to North-America, as Governor of the Province of New-York and Quebec, and commander in chief of the troops in North-America.

The contradiction of the ſhips now fitting being deſtined on ſome expedition, is, we are told, a mere contradiction; for that a fleet is to be commanded by three Admirals, (Peyache, Geary and Pallier, are ſaid to be the gentlemen) and will attend Mr. Lyttleton to the Tagus, whatever may be its after deſtination.

It is ſaid that the troops in North-America will be drawn from the different parts of the country, and quartered in the neighbourhood of Boſton and New-York.

"Your Lordſhip may ſay what you will, "ſaid a perſon of diſtinction to a noble Lord, at his table, this week" but though my Lord Chatham's opponents are very numerous, yet, take my word for it, that as ſoon as he comes to town, and makes his perſonal appearance in the Political and Miniſterial World, his enemies will be glad to hide their heads where they can beſt conceal themſelves from his reſentment."

FEBRUARY 23. Friday laſt ſeveral of the colony agents attended the Board of Trade and Plantations.

Friday night David Hume, Eſq; arrived in town from Scotland, being appointed Deputy-Secretary to General Conway, in the room of Mr. Burke, reſigned.

It is thought that an act will be paſſed this ſeſſion to allow paper currency to the Engliſh colonies in North-America and Weſt-Indies.

By a gentleman juſt arrived from Flanders, we learn, that ſuch large quantities of wheat were ſhipped off from thence for Italy, France, &c. that it occaſioned the populace to cry out, and give an alarm that the poor would be ſtarved, if an immediate ſtop was not put to the exportations.

A great quantity of half-pence are now coining at the Tower, for the uſe of the people of Ireland.

Lately died at Drogheda, in Ireland, aged 107, Patrick Drogheed: He was a drummer in King James's army at the battle of the Boyne, and maintained his ſight and memory to the laſt.

FEBRUARY 24. The 11th of laſt month a regiment of Spaniſh troops from Andaluſia, arrived at St Rocque, near Gibraltar, to relieve part of the garriſon; as did alſo 100 galley ſlaves from St. Sebaſtian's, to be employed on the fortifications. It is added, that a perfect good underſtanding ſubſiſts between the Engliſh and Spaniards.

Orders are given for ſome thouſand ſtands of ſmall-arms to be got ready at the Tower, to be ſhipped for North-America.

Not long ſince a clerk to a conſiderable houſe in this city, quitted his place, in order to be married to a young lady of fortune at the court end of the town; but next morning, when his acquaintance went to congratulate him, to their great ſurpriſe, they found him in the hands of bailiffs, having been arreſted in bed, at the ſuit of his wife's creditors, for ſeven hundred and fifty pounds.

Some extra officers belonging to the cuſtoms, on board one of the ſhips in the river, lately made ſome ſlip in a copper ſaucepan, the tinning of which was worn off: After which they were violently ſeized; one of them died that night, another next day, and a third is in great danger, notwithſtanding a phyſician was ſent for. This was owing to the verdegraſe in the pan, of which people ought to be cautious, and keep copper veſſels properly tinned. This puts us in mind of an order of his Pruſſian Majeſty at the beginning of the late war, who gave orders for laying aſide all copper veſſels in the camp, and for ſubſtituting thoſe of iron only.

Europe is at preſent in a very tickliſh ſituation. Poland intirely diſturbed about religion. The ſubjects of Spain ſo diſtinguiſhed, that the King reluctantly dares venture to his capital. Portugal quarreling with its grandees. France diſturbed by diſſentions between the King and ſome of its Parliaments. Sweden not quite at reſt. Some active powerful States watching were the booty ſhall fall. Germany going to hang all the Witches and Wizards. Geneva almoſt ruined. And England divided againſt itſelf, and the great at variance for the louves and fiſhes, not at eaſe about the Manilla ranſom, and uneaſy about many other things.—It is a pity that the powerful will not have ſome regard for the happineſs and content of their Sovereign, and unite to make thoſe nations feel our reſentment who refuſe to do juſtice.

Extract of a Letter from Dublin, January 24.

"Our attention here has, for ſome time paſt, been taken up with the great Cauſe that depended between Nicholas Earl of Ely, ſon to the late Lord Loftus, and ſome of his neareſt Relations, who have endeavoured to prove the young Nobleman an Idiot. The Commiſſion ended this Day, when it appeared, from the witneſſes examined, that the ſaid young Nobleman, from his infancy, was uſed in a moſt barbarous Manner by his Father, and thoſe to whom the Care of him was intruſted, which, though it impaired his Underſtanding, has not diſqualified him from conducting himſelf with Propriety in all the common Offices of Life; In Conſequence of this Evidence, the Jury, conſiſting of the firſt People in the Kingdom, have this Day brought in a Verdict in Favour of the young Nobleman, to the great Satisfaction of the Publick.

"A moſt extraordinary Affair lately happened at Cork; One Patrick Redmond having been condemned to be hanged for a Street Robbery, and Intereſt in vain uſed to procure him a Reprieve with the Judge, a Gentleman of Fortune laid a conſiderable Wager, that the Man ſhould be ſaved notwithſtanding, provided no Hint of his Bett was made publick till the Fellow was cut down. The Man was accordingly executed, and hung upwards of twenty-eight Minutes, when the Mob carried off the Body to a Place appointed, where he was, after five or ſix Hours, actually brought to Life by GLOVER the Actor, who, it ſeems, is alſo a dexterous Surgeon, and who made an Inciſion in his Wind-Pipe, called by the Medical Tribe Bronchotomy, which produced the deſired Effect. The poor Fellow has ſince received his Pardon, and a genteel Collection has been made for him."

BOSTON, APRIL 6.

We hear that his Excellency Governor Moore, of New-York, has, by letter to his Excellency our Governor, deſired that Joſeph Andrews, a priſoner now in Charles-Town goal, and charged with murder and piracy on the high ſeas, may be ſent to New-York for trial; and that his Excellency, with the advice of Council, has directed the Commiſſary-General to procure a paſſage for the ſaid Andrews thither, under a guard of two men, with a proper warrant for that purpoſe, together with all his effects which have been ſeized here, excepting the money, which is to remain till further orders.

NEW-YORK, APRIL 6.

From private advices from England, we are informed, that there was the greateſt reaſon to hope the reſtrictions upon the Governors of the ſeveral Engliſh American colonies, againſt paſſing money bills of paper currency, would be wholly taken off, without any conditions inconſiſtent with Engliſh liberty, ſoon after the ſiting of parliament, which was to meet the 16th of January.

The legiſlature of Rhode-Iſland have paſſed an act calling in and ſinking all the money bills of that colony emitted in March, April and May, 1762, and empowering George Hazard, Eſq; with the General-Treaſurer, in lieu of the bills ſo brought in, to iſſue their own notes, properly printed and decorated, to the owners of the bills brought in, payable in 7 years from the date of the reſpective bills.----And that the notes given in lieu of the ſaid bills, ſhall bear intereſt till the time limited for their return, at the rate of ſix per cent. per annum. That a tax ſhall be levied for the diſcharge of the ſaid bills, and that it ſhall be death to counterfeit them. The form is that of a common promiſſary note, with intereſt. None more than 100l. nor leſs than 6s.

APRIL 6. We are credibly informed that the man called Stephen Porter, who murdered Capt. Weſcoat, of Liverpool, arrived here from the Grenades in a ſloop commanded by Roger Richards, about 6 months ſince, and was known to be flush of money, and very poſſible has beat his courſe towards Virginia, in expectation of meeting with Weyton, another ſeaman, concerned in ſaid murder, who was born in that province: Porter was born at Briſtol, in England, is a ſtout, luſty man, of a ſwarthy complexion, about 34 years old, and wore his own hair.

APRIL 13. By Capt. Davis, from London, we hear that the Spaniards are fitting out a very large fleet in all their ports; and it is looked upon, as if they intended an attack on Gibraltar or Mahon, to make up for their late loſſes.—— Admiral Broderick is going with a large fleet to Gibraltar, and orders are gone before him, to get proper booms fixed, and every thing for defence ready at thoſe places. Many large ſhips are taken up in the river Thames, for ſtore-ſhips and tranſports.——Theſe preparations have given ſome grounds to the enemies of America, to think they are deſigned againſt them.——Numbers of carpenters, and other tradeſmen, are gone to Spain; the Engliſh ambaſſador has orders to demand them, ſeeing the diſadvantages of ſuch men leaving their native country.——Numbers of tradeſmen have engaged to go and ſettle in Eaſt and Weſt Florida, as the poor in general in England are very much diſtreſſed by taxes, and proviſions exceſſive dear.

Juſt when Capt. Davis left London, which was the 21ſt of February, Mr. Pitt was ſent for from Bath to Court, on very particular buſineſs; on his journey, at Marlborough, the ceiling of the room fell in upon him when at dinner, occaſioned by a workman's falling through the ſame.—He will uſe his endeavours this parliament to break the India company's charter, if they do not pay all the expences attending the laſt war in India; the company ſeems to foreſee the event, as they have more ſhips out now than ever. The parliament does not break up till the 14th of May, by which time Mr. Pitt will likewiſe endeavour to have the Manilla ranſom paid, which is £. 330,000 ſterl.

APRIL 16. Many private letters from London are filled with conjectures about the great armaments preparing in England, and the 13,000 men ſaid to be coming to New-York: Some of them corroborate the above intelligence of a dark cloud's hanging over the heads of us North-Americans; whilſt others, with a greater degree of reaſon, ſay, that New-York is made the pretence for the armament, but verily believe is chiefly deſigned either to defend Gibraltar, if attacked by the Spaniards, as there was ſome apprehenſion of; or to enforce the payment of the Manilla ranſom: But as theſe are conjectures only, time alone muſt aſcertain what will be the real intention and iſſue thereof.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 6.

Poſtſcript of a Letter from London, by the Packet, dated January 10, 1767.

"We had almoſt forgot to have acquainted you, that on the 7th Current, a Meeting of North-American Merchants was ſummonded, who accordingly met, and choſe a Committee, which Committee are to meet again on the 12th Current, in order to conſider of and form a proper Plan for the Circulation of Paper Currency in your different Provinces, and as we have very great Encouragement from the preſent Miniſtry, we have not the leaſt doubt of obtaining our deſired Point, which hope, and doubt not will be a very acceptable Piece of News to all our North-American Friends, as alſo very agreeable to Yours, &c."

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London to another in Philadelphia, dated January 10.

"Theſe are intended by the Packet, to acquaint thee, for the information of all our Correſpondents, that a Committee of Merchants were choſen at a Public Meeting on the 7th Inſtant, to apply to Parliament for Relief in reſpect to your Paper Currency, with the Aſſiſtance of the Agents of the ſeveral Provinces, and ſuch Gentlemen from your Continent as are now here. They meet the day after to-morrow, to receive, and conſider, ſeveral Plans which it is ſaid will be offered for this Purpoſe, which in their opinion, they are to report to a General Meeting; and as the preſent Miniſtry are favourably diſpoſed towards the Meaſure, we doubt not but ſomething will be done this Seſſion, and we ſhall as ſoon as in our Power, adviſe the Succeſs."

Extract of another Letter from London, dated Jan. 12, 1767.

"Your Agents have been for ſome Time much engaged in promoting the Repeal of the Paper Money Act. They had ſeveral Meetings with a Committee of Merchants on the Subject, and have no doubt but they will ſucceed in obtaining the Repeal, under the following Reſtrictions, viz. That the Bills of Credit to be made in future, ſhall not be legal Tender in any Debts payable in Europe—in Debts already ſubſiſting—or in ſpecial Contracts to be paid in a Silver Currency."

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 20.

The two following Extracts from London, were received by a Gentleman in New-York.

February 14, 1767.

"Since the arrival of the Halifax Packet, with the reſolutions of your aſſembly, of the 15th of December, ſuch a cloud appears to be gathering over your province, as cannot but exceedingly affect every mind pacifically diſpoſed, and alarm thoſe connected by commerce. This circumſtance inclines us to wait, and ſee what turn this unhappy affair will take, before we can increaſe our concerns in a Province which we fear will be ſoon in a ſtate of confuſion, as it is the general opinion, that the Britiſh Legiſlature will immediately purſue meaſures to oblige yours to execute the act of parliament objected to, whereby property may probably become precarious, which, ſhould it unfortunately prove the caſe, we think our friends may blame us for ſending them goods at ſuch a critical juncture. We ardently wiſh a more favourable proſpect may preſent to our view, before the departure of the veſſels bound for your port, but leſt that ſhould not happen, we are anxious to communicate our ſentiments by the earlieſt conveyance.

February 24, 1767.

"Since our laſt no favourable circumſtances have occurred, relative to the public affairs of your Province; for although nothing can be depended on for certainty, in regard to the meaſures which government may adopt, yet it ſeems generally agreed, that eight or nine regiments, with two detachments of artillery, are deſtined for embarkation to your port; we therefore find no reaſon to alter the ſentiments we communicated by our laſt, and conſequently have been under the diſagreeble neceſſity of permitting the veſſels to depart, without any goods from us, thinking it not conſiſtent with prudence to riſk, at ſuch a critical juncture, the property either of our friends or ourſelves, for any immediate advantage that may accrue from the one to the other.

Extract of a Letter from London, (by the Packet) dated February 14, 1767.

"The miſchiefs ariſing from the frequent changes in the Miniſtry, are too obvious to require a recital of them.—— It has for ſome time paſt been generally hoped and believed, that the preſent adminiſtration would be more permanent than the former; but now we have reaſon to fear immediate and great changes. The reaſons which are hinted, as likely to occaſion them, are, That Lord Chatham's frequent and long indiſpoſitions, render him often incapable of buſineſs; and his great influence when he recovers his health, enables him to overthrow any meaſures entered into while he is ill, which occaſions great delay in parliamentary affairs.—This it is ſaid, will render his removal neceſſary; and ſhould that happen, very conſiderable alterations will enſue. Some imagine the Duke of Bedford's and Mr. Grenville's parties will be re-admitted."——Which Heaven avert.

BASSETERRE, (St. Chriſtophers) February 14, 1767.

THE DEPOSITION

Of William Harry, aged fourteen years, born in Wales, in the kingdom of Great-Britain, taken before the Honourable Jan de Windt, Governor and Commander in Chief of the iſlands of St. Euſtatius, Saba, and St. Martin's, this fifth day of February, 1767.

THIS deponent ſaith, That he ſailed from Briſtol in the month of June 1765, on board the ſloop William, of and belonging to Briſtol, commanded by John Wescoat, bound for the coaſt of Africa, and in about five weeks after arrived at Cape Mount, where they continued about twelve months, purchaſing ſlaves for a brigantine belonging to the ſame owners that owned the ſloop he (the deponent) was then in, as well as for their own veſſel; That after they had ſlaved the two veſſels, the ſloop proceeded to Sierraleone, where ſhe cleaned and took in water, and then proceeded with an intention to go to the iſland of St. Chriſtophers: That about fifteen or ſixteen days after they left the coaſt of Africa, one of the ſeamen, named Stephen Porter, had offended the captain, who beat him ſeverely with a ſmall rattan, and knocked him down with a billet of wood: That between 11 & 12 o'clock of the night ſucceeding, (being the captain's watch) the deponent was under deck, who hearing a great noiſe upon deck, immediately went up, when he found the captain murdered, and that Stephen Porter and Richard Hencock (both ſeamen before the maſt) were then throwing the dead body over board; and the deponent heard the ſaid Porter and Hencock ſay that they had killed the captain with an ax, as he lay aſleep upon the round-houſe; that ſoon after the dead body was overboard, Stephen Porter took the ax, went down in the Cabbin with Hencock, and there murdered the mate, who was aſleep, after which they brought the body, with the aſſiſtance of George Waypon, upon deck, and threw it overboard; That five days after the murder was committed, they made the iſland of May, and in a few hours after of St. Jago, which latter they ſtood for; but not being acquainted, and miſtaking an inlet for the harbour, run the veſſel aſhore upon the rocks, where ſhe went to pieces in a few hours; but that the ſlaves (except three who was drowned) and white men, got on ſhore; That the ſaid Porter, Hencock, and Waypon, ſold the ſlaves (as the deponent was informed) to the Portugeſe factory, which is at St. Jago, for fifty dollars a head; That about three weeks after they landed at St. Jago, Porter and Waypon took paſſage in a Dutch Sloop; That Hencock was ſtill at St. Jago when this deponent left the iſland. And this deponent further ſaith, That Stephen Porter was born in Briſtol in the kingdom of Great-Britain, is a ſtout luſty man, of a ſwarthy complexion, wears his own hair, and imagines he is about 34 or 35 years of age; That Richard Hencock was born in the Weſt of England, is a ſtout luſty man, with a yellow complexion, wears a light coloured wig, and imagines he is about 35 or 36 years of age; That George Waypon was born in Virginia, is a very tall man, wears his own hair, and imagines he is about 24 or 25 years of age.

THE DEPOSITION

THIS deponent ſaith, That he arrived at St. Jago on Saturday the 23d of Auguſt, 1766; That he landed and waited upon the Governor of the Iſland, who was then in the fort, and reported to him his arrival; That the ſaid Governor, after aſking the uſual queſtions of buſineſs, requeſted the ſaid deponent to take a paſſenger, who, he informed him was one Captain Stephen Porter, that came from Africa, and met with the misfortune of loſing his veſſel near that iſland; This deponent anſwered ſaid Governor, that he was very willing to take the Captain, and the next day came on ſhore, waited upon the Governor at his houſe, where he met with the ſaid Porter, and agreed with him for his paſſage: That in the afternoon of the ſame day, the ſaid deponent was applied to by a man, who called himſelf by the name of George Wherry, for a paſſage to the Leeward Iſlands, and told the deponent, at the ſame time, that he was mate of the Guinea ſloop which was loſt near the iſland. The deponent ſays, he agreed with him for his paſſage, and that Porter and ſaid Wherry came on board his veſſel that evening; That he ſailed the next day in the morning, being the 25th of Auguſt, and arrived in this road of St. Euſtatius, on or about the firſt of October, where he landed the ſaid Porter and Wherry, without the leaſt knowledge, directly or indirectly, of their having committed a murder: And further this deponent ſaith not.
